

Clinical Pharmacy Roles & Challenges are Focus of January 14 Talk at SWOSU

01.07.2014

The evolving role of clinical pharmacy and upcoming challenges will be the focus of a presentation by the Southwestern Oklahoma State University College of Pharmacy on Tuesday, January 14, on the Weatherford campus.

Guest lecturer Dr. Michael Lee, chief of pharmacy at Claremore Indian Hospital, will speak at 2 p.m. in Room 104 of the Gen. Thomas P. Stafford Center on the SWOSU campus. The public is invited to the free presentation.

Dr. Randall Sharp, associate professor in the SWOSU College of Pharmacy, said Dr. Lee is highly experienced and his presentation should provide great insight.
